

University of West Georgia Membership Application (2014-2015)

Enactus is an international student organization that encourages university students to positively impact communities while developing as socially responsible leaders. Enactus brings students and professionals together around the mission of creating a better, more sustainable world through projects that improve the quality of life and standard of living for people in need. Participants gain knowledge in disciplines such as entrepreneurship, business ethics, and economics while benefiting UWG, Carrollton, and surrounding areas.
