Outcomes

The class is designed to

- expose the student to a variety of public speaking situations.
- help the student learn to control and put their nervousness about the speaking situation to good use.
- help the student become a more effective listener.
- develop critical thinking skills.
- familiarize ourselves with the current events and understand how these events allow us to speak thoughtfully and critically.

✓ Evaluation

Students will earn their grades by displaying comprehension of the course material via examination (examination and quizzes), class discussions, and competent application of basic concepts via recorded oral presentations.

Criteria

Breakdown

Below is the list of activities for which students will be directly evaluated, and the point total for each:

Introduction Speech - 50 pts

Process Speech - 100 pts

Persuasive-Policy Speech - 100 pts

Persuasive-Value Speech - 100 pts

Exam #1 - 75 pts

Exam #2 - 75 pts

Total for the course: 500 pts (i.e., 450 points earned = 90, or A in the course)

 Extra Credit will come in the form of Discussion Activities posted on CourseDen. Based on frequency of participation and depth of engagement in discussions, overall Extra Credit scores can earn students 1-3 points on their final Course Grade. For example, a student who's earned 433 points would have a final grade of 86.6. If they earned the top Extra Credit score possible, 3 points would be added, so $86.6 + 3 = 89.6$, which would transform their B into an A.

☰ Assignments

These are the speeches for the class:

Introduction Speech, 2-3 mins (simple autobiographical speech)

Process Speech, 4-6 mins ('how to' speech in which the speaker talks the audience through the steps of a process, e.g., how to change the oil in a car, or how to do a sew-in weave, etc.)

Persuasive Policy Speech, 5-8 mins (the speaker will advocate for/against a policy, attempting to persuade the audience on an issue of public policy, either for or against changing the status quo)

Persuasive Value Speech, 5-8 mins (the speaker will advocate via comparison, attempting to persuade the audience of the superiority of one choice over another)

As for the Exams, both will be short answer or multiple-choice, and can easily be completed (by students who studied) within 20-30 minutes.

📅 Schedule

See the shared Google Doc that was shared with all students on December 28. The class will be divided into two groups, one group attending on Tuesdays and the other attending on Thursdays.

Details regarding the schedule will be revealed in classes. Students are responsible for regularly checking their school email for any updates.

Honor Code

At the University of West Georgia, we believe that academic and personal integrity are based upon honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Students at West Georgia assume responsibility for upholding the honor code. West Georgia students pledge to refrain from engaging in acts that do not maintain academic and personal integrity. These include, but are not limited to, plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, aid of academic dishonesty, lying, bribery or threats, and stealing.

The University of West Georgia maintains and monitors a confidential Academic Dishonesty Tracking System. This database collects and reports patterns of repeated student violations across all the Colleges, the Ingram Library, and the School of Nursing. Each incidence of academic dishonesty is subject to review and consideration by the instructor, and is subject to a range of academic penalties including, but not limited to, failing the assignment and/or failing the course. Student conduct sanctions range from verbal warning to suspension or expulsion depending on the magnitude of the offense and/or number of offenses. The incident becomes part of the student's conduct record at UWG.

Additionally, the student is responsible for safeguarding his/her computer account. The student's account and network connection are for his/her individual use. A computer account is to be used only by the person to whom it has been issued. The student is responsible for all actions originating through his/her account or network connection. Students must not impersonate others or misrepresent or conceal their identities in electronic messages and actions. For more information on the University of West Georgia Honor Code, please see the Student Handbook \(https://www.westga.edu/administration/vpsa/handbook-code-of-conduct.php\).

UWG Email Policy

University of West Georgia students are provided a MyUWG e-mail account. The University considers this account to be an official means of communication between the University and the student. The purpose of the official use of the student e-mail account is to provide an effective means of communicating important university related information to UWG students in a timely manner. It is the student's responsibility to check his or her email.

Credit Hour Policy

The University of West Georgia grants one semester hour of credit for work equivalent to a minimum of one hour (50 minutes) of in-class or other direct faculty instruction AND two hours of student work outside of class per week for approximately fifteen weeks. For each course, the course syllabus will document the amount of in-class (or other direct faculty instruction) and out-of-class work required to earn the credit hour(s) assigned to the course. Out-of-class work will include all forms of credit-bearing activity, including but not limited to assignments, readings, observations, and musical practice. Where available, the university grants academic credit for students who verify via competency-based testing, that they have accomplished the learning outcomes associated with a course that would normally meet the requirements outlined above (e.g. AP credit, CLEP, and departmental exams).

COVID-19

Proctored Exams/Online Instruction: Students should be aware and plan ahead for the possibility of having to complete all courses and/or exams online or in a proctored environment. This means talking with your instructors about what minimum technical requirements (software and hardware) will be required should your class move online or a student's personal needs dictate. This also includes making plans for internet access at whatever location participation may occur.

Virtual or in-person proctored exams, if your instructor should require them, may result in an additional cost to the student. Please discuss these details with your instructor or see the information provided here.

Face Coverings: Effective July 15, 2020, University System of Georgia institutions, including the University of West Georgia, will require all faculty, staff, students, and visitors to wear an appropriate face covering while inside campus facilities/buildings where six feet social distancing may not always be possible. Face covering use will be in addition to and is not a substitute for social distancing.

Face coverings are not required in campus outdoor settings where social distancing requirements are met. Anyone not using a face covering when required will be asked to wear one or must leave the area.

Reasonable accommodations may be made for those who are unable to wear a face covering for documented health reasons.
